An Evening Celebrating the Mississippi River

Our Healing River

For millenia, people have understood the power of nature to heal. It's no surprise that here, in a place known for its waters, that the past year has brought record numbers of local residents to the river to find peace, seek rejuvenation, and connect with others in a time of distancing.

This year's festivities will feature a curated selection of healing river stories told by those who lived them. Our storytellers represent the vibrancy and diversity of our community, and their stories connote the depth of our personal and collective relationships with the river.

Our program will be helmed by Shannan Paul, speaker, comedian and local host of The Moth. The event will also feature updates on Friends of the Mississippi River's work, and interactive opportunities for event participants to support our critical mission.

Event Features

FMR will be launching unique digital content throughout our communications platforms, including social media, an interactive website, and targeted e-communications, specifically built for this special event. It will include:

- A live and silent auction
- A message from FMR leadership sharing our progress during this unprecedented time
- A live program featuring compelling, curated river stories
- A special opportunity to impact the river through a live giving moment

Corporate Sponsorship Opportunities

About FMR

Friends of the Mississippi River (FMR) was established in 1993 to protect, restore and enhance the Mississippi River and its watershed in the Twin Cities. From our beginnings with a small but committed board of directors and one staff, we have grown to 17 board members, 19 staff, 2,600 members and over 4,000 volunteers and event participants annually.

FMR has built a strong reputation for taking an inclusive, place-based and strategic approach to stewarding the river and we work with myriad stakeholders, partners and constituents to protect the many assets the river brings to our communities.

About the Event

FMR's annual river celebration is our premier event to engage our closest and most generous supporters. This year participants will have the opportunity to join us virtually or in person. We expect to engage hundreds of participants who value all that the river offers our community. Our goal this year is to raise over $150,000 to conserve the urban river in our backyard.

Our corporate sponsorship program strives to create a mutually beneficial partnership by offering visible recognition for your contribution and creating meaningful opportunities for you to engage with existing and potential customers.

By sponsoring this event you have the opportunity to align your resources and name with work that is providing your community with tangible benefits. In addition, FMR's promotion of your sponsorship will reach a wide audience:
